Let's run

It's an endless racing game. Its goal is to reach the biggest score as possible. If the player touches some block, he loses the game.

The commands of the game are:

- Swipe to the left to move the player to the left;
- Swipe to the right to move the player to the right;
- Sliding down causes the player to slide.

The vertical blocks shall be transposed by their sides. The player shall slide under the horizontal blocks.
